Cookies

A cookie is a string of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer, and that the visitor's browser provides to the website each time the visitor returns. Avant Guard Gates uses cookies to help identify and track visitors, their usage of the Avant Guard Gates website, and their website access preferences. Avant Guard Gates visitors who do not wish to have cookies placed on their computers should set their browsers to refuse cookies before using the Avant Guard Gates website, with the drawback that certain features of the Avant Guard Gates website may not function properly without the aid of cookies.

In addition, we utilize Google's Conversion Tracking program on our Contact Us page. If you found our website through an advertisement on Google.com, or any of Google's affiliated websites, Google uses a session cookie (which does not track personally identifying information) to gather information used in making customer search experiences more relevant. This cookie expires in 30 days.

For more information, please see Google's Privacy Policy (<http://www.google.com/privacy.html>).
